ALLIED FORCES ARE DRIVEN BACK PLAN OF ATTACK PROVES FAILURE

ATTACK UPON GERMAN LINES REPULSED WITH HEAVY LOSS

French War Office Issues Official Statement Telling of the Defeat of Allied Forces—German Cavalry Rides Far Into French Territory—English Army Holds Its Ground Under Attack.

ARMIES RETREAT TO THE COVERING POSITIONS

Aspect of Gigantic Struggle Changes and Northern France Will be Made to Suffer From the Raids of the Germans. Despite Heavy Losses, Germans Force Their Way Forward, and Victory is Theirs.

Paris, France, August 24. — The French war office issued the following announcement tonight:

"The French and English, the plan of attack having failed, owing to unforeseen difficulties, have retired on the covering positions.

"West of the Meuse, the English army on our left was attacked by the Germans, but behaved admirably, holding its ground with traditional steadfastness.

"The French assumed the offensive, with two army corps. An African brigade, in the front line, carried away by their eagerness, were received by a murderous fire. They did not give an inch, but counter-attacked by the Prussian guard, they were obliged to retire, only, however, after inflicting enormous losses. The Prussian guard, especially, suffered heavily.

"East of the Meuse, our troops advanced across an extremely difficult country, and made vigorous attack when they emerged from the woods, but were obliged to fall back, after a stiff fight, south of the river Semois.

"On order of General Joffre, our troops and the British troops withdrew to the covering positions. Our troops are intact; our cavalry has in no way suffered, and our artillery has affirmed its superiarity. Our officers and soldiers are in the best of condition, morally and physically.

Aspect of Struggle Changed.

"As a result of the orders which have been issued, the aspect of the struggle will change for a few days. The French army will remain for a time on the defensive, but at the right moment, to be decided on by the commander in chief, it will resume a vigorous offensive.

"Our losses are heavy. It would be premature to enumerate them. It would be equally so to enumerate those of the Germans, who suffered so heavily that they were obliged to abandon their counter attacks and establish themselves in fresh positions in Lorraine.

"We delivered four attacks yesterday from our positions north of Nancy, inflicting very heavy loss on the enemy.

"In regard to the general situation, we have the full use of our railoads and retain command of the seas. Our operations have enabled the Russians to come into action and penetrate the heart of West Prussia. It is to be regretted that the offensive operations planned failed to achieve their purpose, as a result of difficulties impossible to foresee. It would have shortened the war, but our defenses remain intact in the presence of an already weakened enemy.

"Every Frenchman will deplore the temporary abandonment of portions of Alsace and Lorraine, which we had occupied, and certain parts of the national territory will suffer from events which would be the outcome.

"The ordeal is inevitable, but temporary. Thus detachments of German cavalry belonging to an attacked division operating on the extreme right, have penetrated to Roubad (six miles north of Lille) and the Tourcoing district, which are defended only by territorial reservists.

"Our valiant people will know how to find courage to support this trial, with unfailing faith in final success, which is not to be doubted. In telling to the country the whole truth, the government and military authorities give it the strongest proof of their absolute confidence in victory, which depends only on our perseverance and tenacity."

WAR BULLETINS

SPECIAL COURT DECREE.

Business of Cotton Firm Open for Another Month.

New York, August 24.—The closing of the New York stock and cotton exchanges has made it impossible for receivers of S. H. P. Pell & Company to wind up the firm's affairs and for this reason, Judge Hazel, of the Federal District court, authorized them today to keep the firm's business open for 30 days, and where possible to sell the stock owned by the firm at private sale.

The suspension of the firm, announced July 29, was caused by the collapse of the cotton market due to the European war situation. The receivers told the court today the firm's liabilities would exceed $5,000,000. It is impossible to place a valuation upon its assets, the receivers said, as the market value of their stocks is unknown because of the closing of all exchanges.

New York, Aug. 25.—In addition to the purser safe, divers have succeeded in raising $250,000 in silver bullion from the hull of the sunken steamship Empress of Ireland in the lower St. Lawrence. Word to this effect was received today by a salvage company here doing the work. All the mail bags also have been found.

WAR DEVELOPMENTS IN A NUTSHELL.

The French and British troops, opposing the invasion of the Germans in Belgium, have suffered a serious reverse, according to the official announcement issued by the French war office. In the battle line, which extends from Mons to the Luxemburg frontier, several army corps, composed of both British and French, took the offensive on Sunday against the Germans, but their plan of attack failed, owing to the "unforeseen difficulties" as described by the official statement, and the troops retired on the covering positions.

The losses on both sides are reported as extremely heavy, and the French officials describe the Germans as being obliged to establish themselves in fresh positions in Lorraine. The French have abandoned those portions of Alsace and Lorraine which they previously had occupied, and now look for heavy fighting in French territory.

Detachments of German cavalry, operating on the extreme right, have reached Roubaix, a few miles north of Lille. This territory is defended only by reservists.

At Tsing Tau, the capital of Kaio Chow, the German protectorate in China, the German forces have prepared for a bombardment by the Japanese fleet, by dynamiting all the tall structures there, which might be used by the attacking forces as sighting points. They also have taken all possible measures to oppose the advance of a Japanese field army.

There is a report emanating from Rome and Avlona that the Albanian insurgents have entered Avlona and raised their flag.

Emperor Nicholas of Russia is reported gone to the headquarters of the Russian army, which has taken the offensive in full strength, and is said to be advancing rapidly in East and West Prussia.

A late despatch from Copenhagen gives further reports from Austria that Emperor Francis Joseph is in a grave condition.

GOVERNMENT PROMISES TO PROTECT THE SOUTH

Conference of Representatives of Various Branches of Cotton Industry With Federal Officials Yesterday Brings Better Feeling—Meeting Will Continue Today.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Representatives of the various branches of the cotton industry, in conference here today with the Federal Reserve Board and other government officials, were assured by the Secretary of the Treasury that properly safeguarded warehouse receipts for cotton would be made the basis for currency issued by the new Federal Reserve banks.

The conference immediately took up the question of proper warehouse facilities and discussed the details of financing the crop. Secretary McAdoo told the delegation that the disposition was to make not only cotton but tobacco and all other staple products "properly secured," the basis of bank credit.

The conference, which represented cotton growers, merchants, bankers and manufacturers from 22 States, after a morning session with Secretary McAdoo and the Reserve Board, called on the President. He assured them of the full co-operation of the National government in their efforts to meet the situation confronting the cotton States as a result of the closing of the European markets by war. The President urged that every interest do its best to help itself.

"I am not willing to believe," he said, "that these conferences are intended to call upon the government to rescue men who know how to take care of themselves; but that they are called for the purpose of common counsel and for putting at the disposal of men who know how to take care of themselves every legitimate instrumentality of the government itself.

Urges Co-Operation.

"The conferences that we have held in recent weeks have done a vast deal, first of all to clarify problems, and second, and perhaps more important, to show how by co-operation we can solve the problems. Not all of these problems are going to be entirely solved, because the circumstances are of such extraordinary difficulty, but that they will come very near to being solved, I, for one, have no doubt, provided we always keep cool and think of these things in the same self-possessed temper we would exercise if conditions were not extraordinary. We are not to be run away with by sudden excitement; we are not to be imposed upon by unusual conditions and the minute we sit down together I am sure that we can work things out."

The conference this afternoon devoted considerable time to discussing warehouse facilities. S. T. Morgan, of Richmond, Va., representing the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, said that following the Secretary's announcement his company had made all arrangements for building cotton warehouses throughout the South from North Carolina to Texas. He said that engineers had estimated that warehouses could be built for from $500 to $1,000,000 each to store 1,000 to 1,500 bales.

Warns Against Panic.

Postmaster General Burleson urged the cotton representatives to disregard the many radical plans proposed for dealing with the situation such as the valorization of cotton, and to concentrate their efforts toward plans which would be practical under the law. He pointed out the limitation of banking laws and urged that any plan be made to conform with them. Both the Postmaster General and the Secretary of the Treasury warned against hysteria and panic.

The discussion this afternoon developed a sentiment favorable to the proposed purchase of ships by the government for the foreign trade. It was stated that with South American and Asiatic trade routes opened to American ships, the American cotton manufacturers could extend their cotton cloths to these markets and increase ther consumption of raw cotton by 1,500,000 bales. The general opinion was that three million or four million bales of cotton would have to be carried over as a result of the closing of British, French and German mills.

Cotton manufacturers promised to make every effort to increase their consumption and agreed not to force down prices for raw cotton. Bankers agreed to make every legitimate effort to aid in the financing of the crop.

The conference will meet again tomorrow.

SENATE PASSED BILL.

Allowing Federal Licenses to be Granted Cotton Warehouses.

Washington, Aug. 24.—The Senate late today without roll call passed the so-called cotton warehouse license bill proposed by Senator Hoke Smith originally to add value to cotton warehouse certificates by means of government inspection and certification of the grades of cotton stored in licensed warehouses.

On the floor of the Senate the bill was amended to extend its provisions to tobacco, naval stores, canned salmon, grain and flaxseed. Amendments for extension to apples, peaches and oil were voted down.

A limitation was placed on the bill so as to exempt from the operation of the grain provisions those States having a State grain inspection system.

Paris, August 24.—A rumor is in circulation in Paris this morning that the Germans have occupied the unfortified tow nof Nancy. This report, however, lacks confirmation.

FUTURE OF BRITISH EMPIRE MAY DEPEND UPON OUTCOME

Knowledge That Best of British Regiments Are Taking Part in Battle That May Change Entire Map of Europe Brings Realities of the War Home to Those Who Remain Behind in the British Isles.

PROMISES TO BE LONG DRAWN OUT STRUGGLE

Realization of How Small a Part the British Army Counts in a Great European Struggle is Being Driven Home, and the People of Great Britain Grow Serious.

London, Aug. 24.—This day of waiting has brought the realities of war to the British people. Not before has the whole nation been so deeply moved. Englishmen know that most of the best regiments of their army are fighting a battle on which the future of the empire may depend. Many thousands have relatives and friends in the army, they know the death roll probably will be longer than in the case of any British force since the Crimean war.

The only information the country has had regarding the battle is contained in brief official bulletins of a vague character. These have not been cheering. Throughout London the people tonight are in much more serious mood than at any time since they faced the war. There are no scenes of gaiety in the theatres, and restaurants and the crowded streets are quiet.

This does not mean that there is any less determination upon the part of Britons—only that the people are beginning to realize what this way may cost. On every side are heard declarations that the country must be prepared for a long exhausting struggle.

While not many reproaches come from supporters of Lord Roberts' course to force compulsory service, not a few admit they never realized how small a part the British army counted in a great European struggle. Thus far England has felt the war far less than any European nation engaged, probably less than Holland and Switzerland, but now waiting for the issue of the battle and for the lists of killed and wounded, the English people understand all that it means.

Every boat from Belgium comes crowded with impoverished refugees, who have fled before the German invasion. An organization is being formed to care for these people and part of the Prince of Wales relief fund, which amounts to more than $7,500,000, will be sent to Antwerp for sufferers who have taken refuge there. Thousands of Belgians have crossed the French border for asylum, and a committee will arrange for their relief.

England and France apparently propose to care for their smaller ally, who thus far has borne the brunt of the hardships which the war entails.

TELLS OF THE BEGINNING.

London Correspondent Saw First of World's Greatest Battle.

London, August 25.—The Daily Telegraph's Paris correspondent telegraphing Sunday sends a letter dated 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon in Jeumont; Department of Nord, France, which says:

"I left Charleroi last night for Jeumont on the French frontier, and just a moment too soon. This very morning the engineers of the Northern Railway line witnesses an attack on Charleroi.

"Germans from the outskirts of the upper town were sending shells on the railway station and on the salient parts of the tower town. They were trying to force a passage across the river bridges. Fugitives from all sides arrived here by the last trains.

"After 2 o'clock this afternoon guns were distinctly heard first from the direction of Charleroi and then Theuin. The Germans were being met by the English. This is the beginning of the great battle that has been expected."

The same writer in a letter sent Friday from Charleroi, says:

"The Germans are advancing over a line of nearly one hundred miles, spreading out in a formidable fan-like movement, preceded by swarms of scouts in all directions, which sweep the country fro mBrussels to Arlon, 15 miles northwest of Luxemburg. The German hordes are on the march over five different routes toward France. They will find men to meet them. Our troops, in conformity with the plan laid down, are harrassing them on the right and left banks of the Meuse keeping in constant contact and killing as many members of the scouting parties as possible.

Saw Several Engagements.

"I witnessed Friday a series of engagements outside Charleroi. I saw our outposts everywhere. I saw now and then troopers coming in bringing prisoners. Our cavalry was in splendid form and eager for action.

"At 2 o'clock this afternoon guns were heard in the north. The Germans coming from Eghezee, had placed heavy batteries of siege guns in position before Namur. The Namur forts immediately sent in such a murderously and accurate fire in reply that in less than half an hour a German battery was silenced and half its guns demolished.

"Another line of attack chosen by the Germans was between Braine L'Alleud and Genappe, southeast of Brussels, over a front twelve miles long. The German batteries here met the same fate.

"Two men who have just come here from Namur say that at 7 o'clock this morning they started on foot for Givet and when half way to Charleroi saw Hamlet on fire. Suddenly a battery of four guns opened on a woods and in an instant swarms of German infantry fled from the woods in disorder. Right and left the rifle fire shot them down. At one place they came out four abreast and the entire column was shot down.

USE SPECIAL CHARTERED SHIP.

Vessel Bringing Americans from Europe Reaches New York—Others.

New York, Aug. 25.—Four hundred mroe Americans who hurried away out of Europe after the war, feached New York today on the Italian liner Principe Di Udine, from Genoa. The vessel was especially chartered for the trip by R. A. C. Smith, dock commissioner of New York. Among the passengers were Dr. Nicholas M. Butler, president of Columbia University, and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Vanderbilt.

The Udine reached quarantine late last night followed by the Holland American Line steamer Noordam from Ratterdam.

Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States, was among the Noordam's passengers. Two hundred thousand dollars was paid the Lloyd Sabaudo Company at Genoa for the use of the Prince Di Udine. Each passenger paid $250 gold as a minimum for first cabin accommodations leaving a deficit of about $40,000 which will be met by the committee which arranged the trip. In a statement issued at New York today the committee says: "The money was well spent."

Statement to Washington.

It was suggested in a statement issued by passengers that a special committee should confer with representatives of the State Department to submit trustworthy information on the critical financial and sanitary situation of fellow citizens in Southern Europe. This letter was signed, among others, by Theodore W. Noyes, Washington, and the Rev. Edw. Rondthaler, North Carolina.

Other arrivals today were the Norwegian steamer Kristianiafjord from Bergen, with more than 1,500 passengers, nearly all Americans, and the Dutch oil tank steamer New York from Rotterdam.

McAdoo's Construction of Aldrich-Vreeland Act.

WAREHOUSE RECEIPTS

National Banks May Issue Currency Against Cotton Safely Stored—Sentiment at Conference for Holding Cotton.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., Aug. 24.—Two important developments were in evidence at today's conference with Secretary McAdoo on the solution of the cotton situation. First, there is an overwhelming sentiment in favor of placing cotton in warehouses and borrowing enough money to tide the farmers over the rough places, and, second, the statement of Secretary McAdoo to H. C. McQueen and A. W. McLean, that he would so construe the Aldrich-Vreeland act as to permit the issuance of currency "on the obligations of national banks secured by warehouse receipts for cotton stored."

Under the Aldrich-Vreeland bill National banks are permitted to issue 30 per cent of their capital and surplus in currency upon commercial paper and the remaining 70 per cent upon State, municipal or other interest bearing securities. Secretary McAdoo explained that in his speech he intended to convey the idea that he had the power to construe the act in such a way as to permit the National banks to issue currency against warehouse receipts for cotton stored and amply secured as a part of the 70 per cent which he is authorized to permit them to issue on State, municipal bonds or other securities.

In other words, the Secretary said he would construe "other securities" to mean obligations of National banks secured by warehouse receipts for cotton stored.

What It Means to Us.

"Had the Secretary ruled that the 70 per cent should apply strictly to State and municipal bonds, it would mean nothing to North Carolina. The State has no State bonds or municipal bonds to put up as security, and this explanation on the part of Mr. McAdoo means that several million dollars more will be sent to North Carolina and I think will take care of us," said a North Carolinian here.

Some 25 or more North Carolinians attended today's conference. The morning session was taken up by the producers of cotton and tobacco.

Sensational Speeches.

Dr. H. Q. Alexander, of Mecklenburg, and R. S. Moberley, of Arkansas, representing the Farmers' Union of their respective States, made sensational speeches in which they again charged that National banks have used the "crop money" for other purposes than that for which the Federal government intended. Dr. Alexander stated that the money had been loaned to the farmers at a rate as high as 8 per cent and none had been let out at less than 6, although, he said, the government loaned the money to the National banks at 2 per cent. He advocated some means by which the Government should loan money for the use of the farmers direct to their local banks, and stipulate a rate of interest to be charged. In short, those representing the farmers wanted relief but not one of them presented an idea that the Federal Government can, it seems, put into actual use.

Secretary McAdoo in his opening speech stated that he wanted to hear from the several hundred representatives as to their ideas of what must be done. He stated that the Government was willing to do its part and that the purpose of the conference was to see what was wanted and then devise means of doing it.

Deputy Marshals on Salaries.

Collector J. W. Bailey and United States Marshal W. T. Dortch, of Raleigh, conferred with Assistant Attorney General Graham today and when they had concluded their talk, it was announced that seven of the 14 deputy marshals would be placed on a salary basis and the remaining seven would be left on the fee system. It is understood that there may be some changes in the district, but the main idea in making these changes will be to place those on salary whose duties in the past have been such as to receive fees in sufficient amounts as to approximate a salary basis. It was stated also that the change would greatly increase the efficiency of the marshal's force.

SPEAKER CLARK DETERMINED THAT MEMBERS BE PRESENT

Warrants Issued for Arrest of Missing Members of Congress.

Washington, Aug. 24.—Speaker Clark issued another batch of warrants of arrest today for absentee members. Sergeants raided the baseball park, cafes and other resorts to bring in enough Congressmen so the House could go on with business.

"Writs have been issued for these absentees," thundered Speaker Clark from the rostrum after a long delay during consideration of the American Power Conservation bill. "The absentees are not treating the House right and are not treating the people of the United States right by staying away, especially those who are lolling about town and are not home for any reason. Members do not seem to realize that these delays mean Congress will remain in session much longer."

Later Democratic Leader Underwood made a statement on the subject: "A large number of the members of this House," he said, "are almost continually absent. I realize that some have been detained in connection with campaigns, but some members of this House have been neglecting their duties."

He gave notice he would move tomorrow that the sergeant-at-arms be instructed to notify all absentees to return to Washington forthwith.

AID TO AMERICANS MAROONED ABROAD

Relief Plans Are Working Like Machinery.

NONE NOW IN DISTRESS

Word From Representatives of American Government in Europe Bring Encouraging Messages—Detailed Account of Relief.

Washington, August 24.—Secretary Garrison, chairman of the government's relief board, tonight reiterated that accommodations for Americans from all parts of Europe were adequate for the present. He also declared his reports showed improvement in the financial condition of Americans in the war zones:

Assistant Secretary Breckenridge, of the War Department, cabled the following report today from Berlin:

"I left The Hague with party Saturday, August 22, the Dutch government furnishing a special train to the frontier. There the German government gave us a special train to Berlin where we arrived 8 A. M. Sunday. I will get in touch with the situation in Austria and Italy frim there."

Mr. Garrisin said he had been advised of the departure yesterday from Liverpool for New York of the St. Paul and the Olympic, the former carrying 620 first-class and 330 second-class passengers, and the latter 796 first, 800 second and 346 third cabin passengers.

The American minister to Portugal, Thomas Burch, cabled from Lisbon that no financial aid was needed.

Consul Robert J. Thompson, at Aix La Chapelle, Germany, telegraphed that Americans and British in East Belgium, Liege, Verviers and Spain are safe.

Consul General Berghois at Dresden, telegraphed that he could say positively Americans and their property are safe in Dresden. Secretary Garrison gave out the following summary of reports received tonight concerning the movements and disposition of the officers and relief funds sent to Europe:

The Relief Work.

"The Tennessee arrived at Falmouth at 7:20 P. M. August 16. Assistant Secretary Breckenridge, with Major Ketchum and Captain Dalton went on to London, taking $800,000 for use there. The officers remained to aid in relief work.

"On the 19th the North Carolina left for Cherbourg with relief funds, and with a party of officers. This party took with them some of the officers who were previously stationed at the various service schools, etc., in France. From France they were to endeavor to reach Swiss and Italian points where they could aid in the work. Two officers were sent to Rome with $50,000 and to Vienna with $25,000. Captains Schindel and Colvin and Lieutenant Phipps, Jr., with $35,000 were sent to Christiana for relief work in Norway, Sweden and Denmark, and two officers, with $50,000 were sent to The Hague at Rotterdam. Assistant Secretary Breckenridge, with five officers and $150,000, are in Berlin. Captain Williams was sent with $3,000 to Antwerp.

"The military attaches already in Europe and the officers at various foreign service schools have been detailed to relief work.

"In addition to the dispositions referred to, $10,000 has been sent to Major Langhorne, the military attache in Berlin, and Ambassador Willard was given $25,000 for work in Spain."

The mayors of many of the larger cities of the United States are being requested by the American Red Cross tonight to bring about a co-operative arrangement with the chambers of commerce and boards of trades and local Red Cross organizations whereby the collecting of contributions for the American Red Cross European expedition may be systematized.

FUTURE OF BRITISH EMPIRE MAY DEPEND UPON THE OUTCOME

port liner, arrived here tonight from London with 241 passengers, most of them Americans. One of her passengers was Mrs. Horace Warden, one of the principals in a romance which was the absorbing topic of discussion during the voyage. Mrs. Warden is the 19-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Easby Smith, of Washington. Two days before the Minnewaska sailed the then Miss Smith married Horace Warden, a lieutenant in the British royal medical corps. He left her to engage in service on Belgian battlegrounds. She was a student in a music school in Brussels when the war began.

CIPHER MESSAGE READ

To the German Troops in China Last Friday—Ready to Defend Place.

Tsing-Tau, China, August 24.—The cipher message from Emperor William addressed to the Tsing-Tau garrison, in which they were called upon to defend the position to the uttermost, was read aloud at roll call Friday evening. It was received stoically.

The Germans have dynamited all the tall structures here which might be of any assistance to an attacking fleet in giving them sighting points. They also have destroyed the railroad bridge at the boundary of their leased territory and have razed the Chinese villages within the territory. The inhabitants of these villages have been partially compensated.

BELGIUM ISSUES PROTEST.

Against Threats of Reprisals on the Part of the Germans.

London, Aug. 24.—The Belgian legation tonight issued a note protesting against threats of reprisals on the part of Germany and giving specific details which, it says, have been verified by the department of justice. Among the alleged acts committed by German soldiers was the burning of the village of Lisnau, August 10th, and the beating with butts of guns of 11 men, all of whom died.

The pretext given was that civilians had killed a German officer, but investigation by the Belgian military authorities, according to the statement, established that this man had been killed in battle by Belgian soldiers. Similar occurrences are cited from the time of the entry of the Germans into Belgian territory.

The Belgian government has posted and the newspapers had published repeatedly a cautionary notice that civilians abstain from acts of aggression against the Germans. Belgium's defense, the communication says, was a legitimate one agianst unjustifiable aggression.

GAVE HIM BACK HIS SWORD.

Commander of Liege Forts Signally Honored by German General.

London, Aug. 24.—The correspondent at Amsterdam of Reuter's Telegram Company, sends a story taken from the Aachner Post telling of the courteous treatment General Leman, commander of the Liege forts, received at the hands of General Von Emmich, of the German forces.

"General Leman," the story runs, "was found by the Germans nearly suffocated under the ruins of a destroyed fort. The German officers treated him with the greatest friendliness and took him before General Von Emmich, to whom the Belgian handed over his sword.

"In recognition of General Leman's brave conduct in a hopeless situation, General Von Emmich returned his sword to him and after a short rest, he was taken with other captive officers to Aix La Chapelle and thence to Cologne."

GERMANS ATTACK TOWN.

Belgian City Held by French is Scene of Determined Attack.

London, Aug. 25.—Since yesterday morning the Germans have been attacking Charleroi which the French are holding," says the Daily Mail's Ostend correspondent telegraphing yesterday. The Germans invaded the town from the Montagny side and came out by the turning bridges in front of the railway station.

There was a hot fight for possession of the bridges as well as for the railway station and other buildings.

German shells are felling in the town. Houses on the left of the Hotel Europe, as seen from the railway station, appeared seriously damaged. A mass of French artillery and troops in endless lines poured out, it is said, toward Chatelet, and the Germans were driven back with a serious loss.

NORWAY FEELS THE EFFECT.

Except for American Flour Her Food Supply Virtually Cut Off.

(Correspondence of Associated Press.)

Christiana, Norway, August 25.—The effect of the European war became felt immediately in Norway. Although formal assertion has been made of strict neutrality, the Norwegian navy and part of the army has been mobilized at those points of the country most exposed to any of the belligerent nations.

King Haakon has decreed that prices on food, coal, coke, wood, oils and such commodities, shall be fixed by the public authorities. The sale of liquors is prohibited and the breweries are shutting down in order to turn over their stock of grain to the flour mills.

The King has repealed the obligation of the Bank of Norway to redeem its paper bills with gold. With the severance of commercial relations with practically all Europe the United States appears to be the only country with which Norway may be able to keep up a trade in food supply. The leading ship owners who have many Norwegian ships in lease in the Unted States have taken steps to have the amount they have earned deposited in American and Canadian banks, so Norway would have money at its disposal across the sea with which to buy grain. Norway will have to look to the United States for its wheat if the war is long continued.

Ordinarily Norway gets its rye and wheat from Russia and Germany, its coal and coke from England, its sugar from Germany and its flour from the United States. With the exception of American flour, importation of all these articles automatically ceased upon the outbreak of the European war.

CAN'T BUY GERMAN SHIPS.

French International Law Expert Renders Decision Against U. S.

Paris, Aug. 24.—Edouard Clunet, former president of the Institute of International law, today made known the result of his examination into the question of the right of Americans to buy German steamers now in refuge in American ports.

The French law, M. Clunet found, since 1778 has forbidden Frenchmen, when neutrals, to buy ships of belligerents after hostilities have begun.

Numerous French and also British prize court decisions to this effect are cited.

France and Great Britain together, it is claimed the authorities examined showed, had refused to recognize the sale of Russian ships after a war had begun and the declaration of London, signed in 1909 by Germany, Austria, France, Great Britain, Japan and Russia, forbids such sales. An opinion along this line by Rear Admiral Charles H. Stockton, U. S. N., is cited. "It would be a violation of neutrality, M. Clunet urges, "for the United States to permit idle property of uncertain value to be transformed into cash, which would be unseizable and of immediate value to a belligerent."

INSTRUCTION TO BOY SCOUTS.

Those Issued to Scouts of Great Britain Made Public in Washington.

New York, Aug. 24.—The National headquarters of the Boy Scouts of America today made public instructions by Lieut. Gen. Sir Robert S. S. Baden-Powell, which he has issued to thousands of troops of Boy Scouts in the British empire. The instructions, in the form of a statement under the heading: "The Great War" are in part as follows:

"The sudden rush to arms by the great nations of Europe against each other over a comparatively small incident in Servia, shows why it is so essential to be prepared at all times for what is possible even though it may not be probable.

"Also it shows how little are the peoples of these countries as yet in sufficient mutual sympathy as to render wars impossible between them. This will be so until better understanding is generally established. Let us do what we can through the Scout Brotherhood to promote this in the future. For the immediate present we have duties to our country to perform.

General Baden-Powell says that in this time of national emergency comes the opportunity for the scouts to "show that they can be of material service to their country."

CRUISER STILL OFF COAST.

British War Vessel Keeps Stand Near Delaware Breakwater.

Delaware Breakwater, Del., Aug. 24.—The North German Lloyd steamer Brandenburg, which sailed from Philadelphia Saturday with all available space filled with coal and nearly a year's supply of provisions, has eluded hostile warships and is now believed to be well out to sea. This was the opinion expressed by shipping men here today who argued that if the steamer was still hugging the Atlantic coast within the three-mile limit, as one unconfirmed report stated, she almost surely would have been sighted by coasting vessels. Incoming vessels of all classes have been asked for information regarding the steamer's whereabouts, but up to a late hour tonight she had not been sighted.

The British cruiser reported to be the Essex and which had been lying eight or ten miles off shore, was not in sight at daybreak today, but returned from the eastward shortly after noon and resumed her position. Tonight her searchlights were kept playing up the entrance of the breakwated.

JAPANESE CHARGE LEAVES.

No Display of Feeling Shown When He Left German Capital.

Berlin (via London, 8:50 P. M.), August 24.—The Japanese charge d'affaires, who was handed his passports by the German government yesterday, left Berlin today. His departure was accompanied by no untoward incident. He is proceeding to the Dutch frontier.

The first post from the United States since the outbreak of the war reached Berlin today. It included letters and papers up to August 10.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS PREPARE PLATFORM.

Will Endorse Wilson Administration and Perhaps Suffrage Plank.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 24.—The work of the Democratic State Conference began today with the arrival here of most of the participants.

The sub-committee which has been drafting the tentative platform was in session until late tonight. Prospects were for a few sharp clashes over the platform, but the sub-committee went on serenely with its work. The chief differences of opinion were concerned with plans to permit the Senate to curtail the power of the executive branch, especially with respect to appointments and removals.

"We are just doing the carpenter work," said William F. McCombs, national chairman, who heads the subcommittee. "We are attempting to agree on a platform on which all Democrats can unite."

It was learned that the sub-committee had agreed finally on a plank giving hearty endorsement to the Wilson administration. The woman suffrage plank remains to be settled. It was the original intention to reaffirm the party's stand of two years ago, for submitting the question to popular vote but the committee may decide to go further than that. It developed today that some of the platform framers favored endorsement of suffrage.

Mr. and Mrs. Don McRackan, of Whiteville, were guests at The Orton last night.

PLAN PERMANENT MERCHANT MARINE

Administration Measures Go Forward in Congress

WILL NOT DROP MATTER

President Denies Reports That He Is Considering the Advisability of Letting the Proposition Drop —Determined.

Washington, August 24.—Plans for building up a permanent American merchant marine by the purchase of foreign ships to be operated by the government went forward today in Congress and at the White House.

In the House Representative Alexander introduced the administration bill for the incorporation of a $10,000,000 company to own and operate ocean steamers under supervision of a shipping board composed of the President, the Secretary of the Treasury, the Postmaster General and the Secretary of Commerce. The government would subscribe for not less than 51 per cent. of the capital stock by an appropriation. Ships would be bought by the sale of $80,000,000 Panama Canal bonds.

President Wilson reiterated his determination to urge the ship purchase plan and said he expected it to be in operation within two or three weeks. Reports that he had considered the advisability of abandoning the project, he said, were without foundation. The fact that private capital had shown no intention or desire to act unless the government guaranteed securities, he declared, merely made it necessary for the government to take the initiative. The President believes the government will be able to develop new trade routes and make the project desirable to private capital and to meet that possibility the bill would provide for sale of the government's stock in the company at any time the shipping board deemed that advisable.

Other Plans Delayed.

Other plans for fostering American shipping made little progress. The war risk bill, which already has passed the Senate, was halted in the House by the failure of the rules committee to get a quorum. Representative Alexander later introduced a bill to authorize a special rule for immediate consideration of the measure with debate limited to one measure.

The administration bill for organization of a Federal steamship company provides that the shares shall be $100 each, the corporation may begin just as soon as 51 per cent. of the stock has been subscribed and all not subscribed by others may be taken by the government. Government ships would be excluded from the coastwise trade.

BATTLE OF VOTES SLATED FOR TODAY

South Carolina Democrats Have Variety of Candidates

FOR EVERY POSITION

Eleven Running for Governor While Four Want to Go to Senate—Blease Against the Field in Senatorial Race.

Columbia, S. C., Aug. 24.—With 11 candidates in the race for the gubernatorial nomination and four seeking nomination for the United States Senate, indications tonight were that an unusually heavy vote would be polled in the South Carolina Democratic primary tomorrow. Representatives in Congress and State officers also are to be named.

Action by the primary is equivalent to election. Tomorrow's contest, however, is hardly expected to be more than an elimination event. Party rules require a second primary September 8th, in which the two candidates receiving the highest vote for such office will meet again, provided none secure a majority vote in the first. Factional lines have been sharply drawn. Candidates have appeared at public meetings in every county at which men and issues were largely discussed.

Candidates for the United States Senate are Governor Cole L. Blease; L. D. Jennings, W. P. Pollock and Senator Ellyson D. Smith.

There are 11 candidates for nomination as Governor. They are Lieut. Gov. Charles A. Smith, M. L. Smith, J. G. Richards, R. I. Manning, Prof. J. G. Clinkscales, W. C. Irby, Jr., R. A. Cooper, L. J. Browning, C. C. Simms, J. B. A. Mullaly, and J. T. Duncan.

All seven Congressmen are standing for re-election, and of these only A. F. Lever, of the Seventh district, is unopposed.

"SADDEST PLACE IN WORLD."

American Woman Tells of Patriotism of French Men of Affairs.

London, August 24.—"Paris is the saddest place in the world," said Miss Cornelia B. Sage, director of the Albright Art Gallery, Buffalo, N. Y., who arrived in London today from the French capital. "All the artists, poets and authors have gone to the war. Every man able to carry arms has answered the call. Only small boys have been left to work in the hotels and cafes. All the studios are deserted.

"The flower of French manhood, all the men of genius are at the front. The wives and mothers and sisters rejoice that these talented men went with their humbler brothers in defence of France."

Bide a wee—probably a week.

The censorship seems to have sprung a leak.

Those who like their news yellow can keep their eyes on the Tokio date line.

The cyclone cellar might be inviting but somebody else may beat you to it.

The tick-tock of the clock at home is sweeter than the click-clock of the army gun.

The war is on. Tragic things are happening, whether we get the particulars or not.

It is up to all to invade the realm on conjecture and make rough guesses all along the line.

After this war autocrats will not be disposed to let the auto part of them go at such a fast clip.

War exacts blood and life from heroes, tears from widows, and cries from orphans. That is not all, but that is enough.

History repeats itself, but some who rehearse history do not know it all. It is difficult to remember everything we wish to recollect.

Americans who saw the war clouds gathering in Europe did not know any more than to stay and witness a reign of terror.

The Belgiums proved to be a hot proposition for the Germans, but 200,000 Austrians who got cold feet in Servia must have been skating on thin ice.

"Nil disputandum de gustibus non," and also what's the use to dispute with a fellow who thinks he is Budweiser than all those who happen to be "from Missouri?"

After eating one of Brunswick county's famous sugar-meated watermelons, one feels like marching into Brunswick to issue an ultimatum for everyone in the patch.

Some Dr. Bunn predicts an age when men will have no toes. In those days no man will be expected to toe the mark on a proposition to come to the scratch.

While listening to reassuring censored reports, the people of Brussels awakened to find the enemy at their gates. All sides seem to "doctor" the reports more than they censor them.

The burgomaster of Brussels saved his city in the face of an overwhelming force. His discretion was worth more to the capital of the kingdom than an army of fighting men was worth to Liege.

A Pittsburgh man is paying up all his debts because he believes that the world is soon coming to an end. Receipted bills will be of little use to him in the settlement of the scores marked against him in the Book of Life.

Amidst all this world's excitement, it should not be overlooked that in a primary election in South Carolina today there will be a battle of ballots with a view to checking Governor Blease's progress towards the United States Senate.

Says the Greensboro News: "Are the Germans still retreating in the general direction of Paris?" If The News indulges in ironical humor it will be charged with being pro-Teuton. Meanwhile, a newspaper is supposed to see the joke in the censorship, regardless of who wrecks the ship in it.

Some folks want the European war to wind up so they can go on trading and making money. They don't care which side whips just so they do it like a streak of greased lightning. Other folks want the war to end for the sake of humanity and civilization, so that all nations and all peoples can live in harmony and share the blessings of life without being afraid.

GOOD NEWS.

The Star carried some really good news yesterday in a review of the commercial situation as viewed by Mr. Henry Clews, the New York expert, whose long experience in commercial and financial circles gives weight to what he says.

While the news from Europe's great battlefield this morning is appalling, the statement of Mr. Clews is the one bright sign on the horizon. He declares that gradually but surely business of all kinds is being resumed and that the world's commerce is adjusting itself to the necessities of war.

While, of course, the German merchant ships are driven from the high seas, the merchant ships of practically all other maritime countries find it safe to engage in commerce. Gradually, therefore, navigation will be resumed, and cotton, grain and other American products are bound to find their way to the markets where the demand is one of necessity.

Meanwhile, the commercial men of the United States have been spurred on by the situation to exploit markets in South America and the Orient where there are great opportunities for expanding trade.

Conditions during the past few weeks have been unprecedented and abnormal, but the first shock of war is over and the people of this country are going to work to make the most of an emergency such as never before existed in the world.

Truly, for us the outlook is encouraging, but for Europe the future is full of uncertainty and gloom. Meanwhile, millions of people there will look to America to feed and clothe them to a large extent for at least two or three years.

A GREAT OPPORTUNITY DEMONSTRATED.

The North Carolina Agricultural Department is doing a vitally important work in emphasizing the opportunities in the farming industry in North Carolina. Not even the Agricultural Department at Washington pursues its work with more method, intelligence and earnestness than does our State department in promoting diversified agriculture and the collateral industries peculiar to the farm. The North Carolina department's farm bulletins are not only a credit to that branch of the State administration but the State has every reason to be proud of these publications on account of the thoroughness of their preparation and the practical subjects so effectively put up to the farmers of the State.

The August "Bulletin" of the department at Raleigh is one of notable and timely value. The subject discussed is "Corn Silage and Cotton Seed Hulls for Fattening Beef Cattle," which is embraced in a report submitted to Commissioner W. A. Graham by Professor Dan T. Gray, chief of animal industry. It contains the details of experiments made on the State's test farm in Iredell county during the winter of 1913. Its publication at this time is timely because of the fact that plans have been made for continuing similar experiments on the Iredell test farm until the prominent questions relating to the fattening of beef cattle during the winter months have been thoroughly and carefully studied.

The particular value attached to the experiment is that it is official and first hand proof of the adaptabilities of North Carolina for beef production. It also should be emphasized that this experiment concerns winter feeding, and that the test shows how we can grow meat during a season of the year when we are not growing anything else. The whole subject is illustrated in a manner that carries the subject home to a farmer.

The tests, intelligently and carefully carried out and reported in a methodical manner were made by Messrs. R. S. Curtis, L. W. Shook and F. T. Meacham. The summary of the bulletin shows that two lots of cattle were fed, with observations being accurately made as to lots one and two.

The summary shows that the lot of cattle fed cotton-seed meal and corn silage made only slightly larger gains than those fed cotton-seed meal and cotton-seed hulls. Lot 1 made an average daily gain of 1.62 pounds and Lot 2, 1.63 pounds during the experimental period of 112 days.

The steers in Lot 1 were fed an average of 21.95 pounds of cotton-seed hulls per steer daily during the experimental period. The steers in Lot 2 were fed an average of 42.46 pounds of corn silage per steer daily during the experimental period. According to the gains made, this showed a relative feeding value of approximately one pound of cotton-seed hulls to two pounds of corn silage.

It required 1,352.2 pounds of cotton-seed hulls in conjunction with 458 pounds of cotton-seed meal to make 100 pounds gain, and 2,611.4 pounds of corn silage in conjunction with 458 pounds of cotton-seed meal to make 100 pounds gain. This shows that it takes, on the average, about two pounds of corn silage to replace one pound of cotton-seed hulls under the conditions of this experiment.

It cost $11.43 to make 100 pounds gain in the lot fed cotton-seed meal and cotton-seed hulls, and $10.92 in the lot fed cotton-seed meal and corn silage, the difference being 51 cents per hundred pounds in favor of the corn silage-fed cattle. When steers were finished, those fed cotton-seed hulls for roughage were valued at $7.50 per cwt. and those fed corn silage $7.70 per cwt. This decision was corroborated by the slaughter data obtained at the abattoir. The silage-fed cattle were thicker and more uniformly covered with fat.

The comparative profit per steer in Lot 1 fed cotton-seed hulls for roughage, eliminating freight, cost of labor, and bedding, was $8.29 per steer. The comparative profit per steer in Lot 2 fed corn silage for roughage was $11.36 per steer, showing a difference of $3.07 in favor of the corn silage-fed cattle.

The shipping data obtained on these cattle showed that the steers fed corn silage did not shrink any more than steers fed cotton-seed hulls under like conditions otherwise. The average net shrink per steer from Statesville, N. C., to Richmond, Va., was slightly less than 45 pounds.

We are sure that the results are highly gratifying and in them there is striking proof that North Carolina offers ideal opportunities for producing and fattening beef cattle, both in the summer and winter, on a highly profitable basis.

The cattle industry ought to look good to North Carolina when it is remembered that the great consuming centers are so close to this capable producing region. New York, for instance, consumes an enormous amount of beef, mutton and pork, and we only have to turn to the New York Journal of Commerce of August 22nd, to note that since January 1st Argentine alone has supplied New York with 547,000 quarters of beef, 97,000 carcasses of mutton and 63,000 carcasses of lamb.

THE BATTLE OVER NECESSITIES.

The world is bound to have the necessities of life. The world may fight but it is compelled to have clothing and food, hence we have felt sure all along that when the European war began to exhaust stocks and make the pressure of demand inevitable, there would be some way for European countries to get what they want. They will have to get food and clothes, and that is all there is to it.

During war times, sugar is classed as a luxury, but that one food stuff can be taken as a criterion, showing how all countries will sooner or later reach out for cotton, cotton manufactures, wheat, flour, and food stuffs. In a circular sent out from New York explaining "Why the price of sugar is high," it is reasoned that the prospect of war forced all countries into the market for sugar. The great demand forced the price up 3 cents per pound, while the real cause of the advance is that the war has cut off about 45 per cent of the world's sugar supply, heretofore produced by the countries at war.

That has caused a battle royal between Europe and America for sugar. America and Great Britain are now contending for the Cuban cane sugar crop, while every sugar growing country is eagerly raked by buyers. England has forbidden any of her colonies to sell any sugar to any but the government; and that alone will cut down the supply of the world.

If there is all this struggle over sugar, what will it be for cotton, grain, flour, and other food supplies? Only time, not far off, will make the world look to us for all its needs in the matter of something to eat and wear.

The country is in no frame of mind to appreciate the humor of those so-called statesmen in Washington who propose to include in the cotton relief measure pending before Congress such things as "applejack and canned salmon." A great industry is threatened and the jokers in Washington should approach the crisis in the great agricultural sections with concern rather than levity.

The announcement of S. T. Morgan, of the Virginia-Carolina Chemical Company, that his corporation had made all arrangements for building a chain of warehouses for the storing of cotton throughout the South from North Carolina to Texas, is certainly interesting and gratifying and should make for the V.-C. company a troop of additional friends throughout the agricultural sections of the South.

Jingoes always have to be conscripted when the time comes to go to the front. When war breaks out a great many of them make haste to secure a certificate from a doctor that they have always been subject to "a powerful misery" in their chest.

Colonel Roosevelt is still endeavoring to force the Progressive and Republicans into an alliance. The Democratic entente is pretty well satisfied that it will have to watch the march to Armageddon with the big elephant trumpeting for the procession.

President Wilson's utterance to the business men of the South, gathered in Washington yesterday to consider the crop situation, was that of a statesman, close to the masses and considerate of humankind.

Since the outbreak of the European war, many drugs have advanced over 100 per cent. in price. It is hoped that the price of dope will go so high that everybody will have to cut it out.

CURRENT COMMENT.

A Kobe, Japan, daily paper says it is reported there that certain English capitalists, who are interested in the cotton yarn and piece goods business, have on foot a scheme to promote a company in Japan, to be called the Oriental Cotton Printing Co., and to have a capital of 3,000,000 yen ($1,500,000). A letter received by a Manchester house in reference to this says it is rumored that it is a Japanese ex-minister of finance who is endeavoring to interest English capitalists in the project. The idea is that the company would take over the Japan Cloth Manufacturing and Printing Co., which has Lancashire-made machinery, but is said to be unable to find work for the machinery all the year round. The present price of the company's 50-yen ($25) shares is about 18 yen ($9), and it is suggested that the shareholders would probably be very glad to sell out. The correspondent adds: "There are several smaller printing works, and competition is very keen. In Japan overproduction seems to be the order of the day; we have overproduction in mousselines and cotton cloth. Owing to the poor market in China, Japanese exports are very dull, and business generally has been particularly bad."—Financial America.

Two men who knew each other quite well met on one of the streets of their home town. Said one to the other: "I hear that you have been talking of taking a trip abroad. I did not know that you had enough money to make the trip." "Oh," replied the other, "so you heard that, did you? Well, it does not cost anything to talk about going abroad." The Republican State Convention at the meeting in Raleigh last week did some talking in its platform, and some of the things it talked about and put into the platform adopted are all right. Take the position it took on some of the proposed amendments to the State Constitution and for a State-wide legalized primary for all parties for all elective offices. That talk is all right, but what about making such talk effective? It is a party which can't deliver the goods. It is without the finances in the shape of character, is without the confidence of the people and without ability to make good its platform talk because—and that party recognizes the truth of the statement—it will not be given power by the people of North Carolina because the people do not trust that party. It has its past career to confront it. The people of North Carolina know from the record of Republicanism that "Fair promises butter no parsnips," and that all the Republican party is doing with fair promises is that it may get into power, and then good-bye to the promises. Take the matter of declaring for a State-wide primary. The Union Republican, the organ of the regular Republicans, has been declaring in issue after issue that the Republican party is dead set against any Statewide primary, and it evidently knows.—Raleigh News and Observer.

It would be uselessly indelicate again to remind Japan of the batch of broken promises which she and Russia have already made regarding the integrity of China. Secretary of State Knox did this during the Taft administration, with no other result than to drive Japan and Russia together in the common resolution to hold on to their respective spoils. The main fact is that Japan and Russia are the only two nations which by reason of possessing both the power and the powerful self-interest may always be expected to seize any good opportunity for the partitioning of China. We may expect that this process will go forward apace as soon as a complete understanding between themselves has been attained. Other countries can be quite content with such a foothold as England has at Hong Kong, Shanghai (in the form of a protectorate) and Wei Hai Wei, as Germany has at Kiau Chau, as France has in Indo-China and we ourselves have in the Philippines. Any extension of Japanese or Russian power in China is, therefore, to be regarded with apprehension by all who, like the United States, want China kept measurably intact. It may be, of course, that Japan will go through some form of receding Kiau Chau to China. She has no need of it in a military or naval way and could be satisfied until her further designs mature to keep it as a sphere of influence, meanwhile completely dominating the avenues of trade opened through railroad construction and otherwise by the Germans there. Last year imports to the value of over $60,000,000 were handled through the port of Tsing Tau. This is a rich prize. What Japan now intimates are revenge for the part Germany played with Russia and France in 1905 to make her respect the integrity of China until Russia could get in ahead of her, merely means that she is attacking only that one country which can be safely and profitably attacked—amiably forgiving the others, at least for the time. Her undoubted ambition to dominate the Pacific is another and vastly larger matter. It perhaps concerns us less nearly than it does Australia and New Zealand. Already keenly apprehensive toward Japan, they must regard England's latest and closest backing of her, through whatever motives aside from them, with the utomst dislike.—Charlotte Observer.

"JIM CROW" DRINKING FOUNTAIN.

Kinston Has What is Said to be the Only One in the World.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., August 24.—"Dynamite" Wilkins, a well-borer, has secured a flow of 30 gallons a minute from the famous artesian well at Queen and Gordon streets, here, which supplies the only "Jim Crow" drinking fountain in the world. The well had to be increased in depth when it was discovered that the flow was too small to supply two spouts instead of one, on the fountain, after the mayor had ordered the separation of races at the public drinking places in Kinston.

Skin Health Comes From the Blood

Even Slight Eruptions Such As Acne Should Be Treated.

Pimples and other skin troubles do not alight on the face like flies. They come bubbling out from within. They are impurities. And if let alone or greased with salves they become chronic, simply because the cause is still at work within. It should be attacked with S. S. S. and the impurities in the blood thus rendered harmless.

The skin is but a net work of fine blood vessels. And it is a perfectly natural consequence that any influence in the blood that is a condition of ill health makes its first appearance in the skin. There are certain medicinal properties that follow the course of the blood stream and the influence of these properties is that of an antidote. This is why S. S. S., the best-known blood purifier, has such a positive action in the skin. There is one ingredient in S. S. S. which peculiarly stimulates cellular or glandular activity to select from the blood or from this fine net work of blood vessels in the skin, those elements which it requires for regeneration.

Thus pimples, acne, eczema, lupus, or any other blood condition that attacks the skin or seeks an outlet through the skin is met with the antidotal effect of S. S. S.

This is why skin troubles vanish so readily and why they do not return.

Under the influence of S. S. S. this fine net work of blood vessels in the skin is constantly taking from the blood the nutrition required for healthy tissue and the cause of disease is just as constantly being removed, scattered and rendered harmless. These facts are more fully explained in a book on skin troubles sent by The Swift Specific Co., 531 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. You will find S. S. S. on sale at all drug stores. Get a bottle to-day and banish all skin afflictions.

Everywhere We Hear Good Reports of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Wilmington is no exception. Every section of the U. S. resounds with praise of Doan's Kidney Pills. Thirty thousand persons are giving testimony in their home newspapers. The sincerity of these witnesses, the fact that they live so near, is the best proof of the merit of Doan's. Here's a Wilmington case.

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I couldn't stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and contained sediment. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box at Bellamy's Drug Store and in a few days the pains and aches left. I have not had to use a kidney medicine since, and I am glad to say that Doan's Kidney Pills brought me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue publishing my former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills."

INSPECTION RESULTS GIVEN TO THE PUBLIC

Health Department Inaugurates New Feature

Scores of Soft Drink Stands, Restaurants, Ice Cream Factories and Bottling Works Are Shown for July.

The grading of the results shown by the inspection of the soft drink stands, restaurants, ice cream factories and bottling works of the city, made by the health department during the month of July, has just been completed and the scores announced.

This is the first time that such an inspection and scoring system has been tried out here, but it is planned by the health department to make it a monthly feature. The next inspection, however, will not be made until September, in order to give the proprietors of the various businesses an opportunity to make certain changes and improvements, the need for which are shown by the scores of the first inspection.

Health officials yesterday pointed out that the initial scores are naturally lower than will be the case when the inspection system has been in force for some time. The system is based on that ordinarily used in larger cities, and the shops, stores, etc., are scored on the sanitary features, based on the following divisions: Building, fixtures, utensils, machinery, screens, floors, plumbing, toilets, lavatories, ventilation, premises, refrigeration, storing of food, handling of food, quality of food, garbage, washing utensils, counters, wrapping, soda fountain, washing glasses, care of coils, water used, milk, ice cream, syrups, dining room kitchen, health attendants, cleanliness attendants, sterilization.

The scores of the soft drink stands, as shown by the July inspection, are as follows:

John Phillips, 203 Princess	68.2
M. D. Bright, 209 Princess	57.5

Nearly All Cases Yesterday Were for Violating Traffic Ordinance.

When Recorder John J. Furlong opened court yesterday morning he was confronted with a docket of more than 40 cases, most of which were for violating the traffic ordinance. These cases were disposed of in short order, however, for each and everyone, unless there was some extenuating circumstance, was taxed with the costs. And the costs in this court is no inconsiderable sum, amounting to between five and six dollars usually.

Those convicted and taxed with the costs for driving on the wrong side of the street were Palmer Dowdy, Stacy Adams, J. P. Holton, J. B. Cooper, all white, and the following colored persons: Alfred Faison, C. A. Grady, John Merrick, Willie Boone, B. Spright, Tom Lofton, Willie Robertson, Willie McKinnon, E. A. Carter, William McManning, Fred Sanders, Will Bradley, Dave Hines, Walter Henderson. Prayer for judgment was continued in the case against Isham Parker, colored, who didn't have a wagon license. Judgment was suspended in a case against Ed Williams, white, and John Hawkins and Dave Murphy, both colored, were found not guilty of violating the traffic ordinance.

Henry Griffin, colored, was sent to the county roads for three months on a charge of stealing a coat from another negro. Amos Hughes, colored, was found not guilty of larceny. Lodie Franks and Margaret Oldham, two colored women, were each taxed with one-half of the costs on a charge of fighting. Rosie Haywood, colored, charged with disorderly conduct, couldn't pay a fine of $5 and the costs and went to the county farm for 30 days. John Davis, colored, for a similar offense, was fined $5 and the costs.

A case against Harry Schafer, colored, charged with assault with a deadly weapon, was continued until today. In default of bond in the sum of $50 he went to jail.

BELIEVE PLAN IS FEASIBLE

Several Towns Will Build Warehouses —Letters of Approval Received by Chamber of Commerce.

The plan for building cotton warehouses, sufficient to store at least one-half of the present crop of cotton, recently suggested by the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, is being cordially received by the different cities and towns of the Carolinas. The plan was outlined in resolutions, introduced by Mr. J. Allan Taylor, and copies have been sent to every mayor and all commercial organizations throughout the Carolinas.

In sending out the resolutions, it was the purpose of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, so far as possible, to secure concerted action on a plan which was believed to be entirely feasible and which would meet the exigencies of the present unprecedented conditions in the cotton market. The plan has been enthusiastically received and has met with the hearty endorsement of leading public men, not only in the two Carolinas, but in other States as well.

Several towns have signified their intention of organizing warehouse companies to build or lease structures for the storing of cotton. Active preparations to this end are being made by the business men and farmers at Wilson and Whiteville.

That some counties in the South already have ample means for storing the cotton produced within their borders, is indicated by a letter that has been received by Secretary Branch, of the Chamber of Commerce, from Dr. J. A. Marshall, mayor of Greenwood, S. C. Says Dr. Marshall: "I am glad to report that Greenwood county has warehouse facilities to store all cotton made in this county. I hope your plan may prove a success."

"Your esteemed favor of the 19th and enclosed copies of resolutions, adopted by the Chamber of Commerce of the city of Wilmington has been received," writes Mr. John C. Drewry, president of the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce, "and I think that it is an important matter. I will take pleasure in bringing it before our chamber at the next regular meeting.

"I will also see that the resolutions are presented to the Farmers' unions throughout this county. I am president of Oak Grove Farmers' Union in this county and I am going to take the liberty of taking the resolutions and reading them to the meeting of this union, which will be held today."

The plan as outlined in the resolutions is to erect frame warehouses covered with tin sufficient to store at least one-half of the present crop. Col. Walker Taylor, an authority on insurance matters, yesterday in reply to an inquiry as to the cost of insurance on such buildings stated that the rate would be the same as it would be if they were covered with iron.

Wrightsville Beach

The souvenir dance to be given at Lumina tonight will no doubt attract a large crowd. The souvenirs will be of neat design and something well worth having. On Thursday night there will be a one-step contest and Saturday night will be known as balloon night when toy balloons will be liberated.

Miss Chanler and Mr. West will dance tonight at Lumina the American tango, which is a new dance, originated by Mr. West. They have given an exhibition of the dance on several previous occasions and it has proven to be very popular with the visitors to this popular pavilion.

Among those registered at the Hanover Inn are Mrs. J. L. Morgan, Raleigh; Miss Rosa German, Washington, D. C.; Mr. and Mrs. John R. Hawes, Atkinson, N. C.; Mrs. Carrie D. Howell, Speed, N. C.; Mr. J. H. Hugh, Charlotte, N. C.; Mr. A. C. Jones and Mr. J. S. Meyers, Washington, D. C.

"Bringing Up Hubby" a stirring and interesting melodrama by the Selig Company, heads tonight's big motion picture bill at Lumina, and promises to be one of the best pictures of the season. It's a thrilling and interesting story told by a capable cast of photoplay stars. "The Little Bugler," a rousing war story-drama, comes next on the bill, and at this time should prove doubly interesting to everyone. "The Medicine Show at Stone Gulch" is the rousing comedy number without which no bill would be complete, and is a big Kalem production.

Although there were no special attractions at Lumina last night there was a large crowd present and the refreshing sea breezes furnished quite a relief to those from the city. Many enjoyed the dancing while others found fun and amusement in watching the moving pictures. By request Miss Chanler and Mr. West danced the one-step. They were applauded most enthusiastically and in response danced the hesitation. Both dances were given in their usual graceful and artistic manner.

Recent arrivals at the Seashore Hotel are Mr. J. O. Gorman, Wilmington; Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Durham, Siler City; Mr. W. H. Bagwell, Mr. W. M. Bagwell and Mr. T. G. Bagwell, Hamlet; Mr. W. L. LOCAL DOTS.

—Moses Samuel and Adell Hill, both colored, were arrested by the police yesterday for violating the hitching ordinance. They were recognized to appear for trial today.

—Ed Johnson and Julius Lee, both colored, were arrested by Officer Leon George yesterday afternoon for failure to have licenses displayed on their wagons. They were recognized for their appearance before the Recorder.

—E. S. Capps, white, was arrested last night by Policeman W. R. Appleby on a capias. He had failed to pay up some costs in a case he had had in court but fortunately had the money last night and was soon discharged.

—Mr. Herbert Johnston, of Wrightsboro, left last night for Raleigh to attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Farmers' Convention which meets in that city today and will continue in session for the next three days.

—The American tank steamer Brilliant, Captain Packer, towing barge No. 89, arrived in this port yesterday afternoon. Both vessels bring cargoes of oils and gasoline to the branch of the Standard Oil Company here and are consigned to the same people.

—Linwood Tindal, white, charged with riding a bicycle on the wrong side of the street, and W. W. Cameron, white, charged with having no license tag on his cart, were arrested yesterday by the police and recognized to appear before the Recorder this morning.

—C. E. Cannady, white, who is charged with assault with a deadly weapon by Henry Willoughby, also white, will be tried before Judge Borneman this morning at 10 o'clock, the trial having been postponed from yesterday. The same bond was continued.

—While attempting to cross on his bicycle between two passing street cars on Front street, near the city market, Willie Pierce, a colored boy, had a narrow escape from death Saturday afternoon. The bicycle was badly damaged but the boy escaped with a few scratches.

THEATRICAL

Yes, it was a big start the Grand Theatre made of its new week yesterday and it can be marked down as a certainty that this amusement spot will hum along at a record-breaking clip for the rest of the week, to immensely delight all Wilmington theatre-goers. This is going to be the banner week of all. Today's show is going to be a great one, while tomorrow's will be one of the greatest yet (don't miss the Wednesday's show, as it contains numerous big surprises), while Thursday Mr. Daniel Frohman will offer the noted actress, Jane Gray, in the equally as noted dramatic success, "The Little Grey Lady."

As politics are snapping in the air it will be heard with great delight that the chief film on today is a gripping political story, "The Political Boss." It is Kalem's most thrilling photoplay and will be hugely enjoyed. It tells the story of a newspaper that starts to support one candidate, but turns from him when it is found he is in league with the machine. Events then transpire in rapid succession and each is a thriller. The fire scene is not only stirring, but is one of the most spectacular ever flashed on a screen. Carlyle Blackwell, J. F. Dillon, James Neill, Bert Hadley and others appear in the cast.

"Molly, the Drummer Boy," is an Edison of power on today. It is a war story, which will also beat in true time with the present. It is a story of the Revolutionary war, in which a young woman enlists as a drummer boy. It possesses the martial spirit all the way through and is one of the best war stories ever written and "set" to moving pictures.

Another one of those stirring "Broncho Billy" features is also on today in "Broncho Billy's Punishment," with G. M. Anderson, of course, in the stellar role. And then there is a big laugh film in "It's a Shame." It's a roar for the wholesome type of chuckles.

At The Bijou.

Today again high-class movies will be on tap at the place where Wilmingtonians have learned to always seek them—The Bijou, and a programme replete with big things has been booked for the throngs of today. The Bijou truly gets better every day, and there is no telling just where it will end—as long as the management gets a chance to snap-up these big offerings exclusively for Wilmington, they are going to do it, and thus give their patrons something away above anything else in this line.

Today's bill is a truly notable one. It is headed by that great Imp two-reel special release, "In All Things Moderation," a thrilling two-reel drama that has been widely talked about all over the country where an inkling of its theme has reached in advance of its showing. It's a story of an old father who is religious—there is no argument against that, though. But—and this was the beginning of the sorrow and tragedy—he refused to curb his religious zeal, refused to see the moral in the saying, "In All Things Moderation." He was utterly incapable of making an application of true Christianity in his own home. Frank Crane is the director of the production, and the leading parts are taken by Miss Dorothy Philips, Howard Crampton, Ruth Donnelly and Alexander Gaden.

Following this is a rousing Keystone comedy, "Mabel's Married Life," introducing popular Mabel Normand. It just can't be described; but there is nothing at all offensive in it; it is all very laughable and one of the best of these big comics.

"A Strong Affair" is a rousing Sterling comedy that fills out today's bill, and will be found one of the best that has yet been produced.

Remember—tomorrow—"The Trey O' Hearts" in two reels, with the second installment of this big serial.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. J. H. Farley, of New York, proprietor of the Market street store of Farley & Co., this city, which is one of a chain of stores operated throughout the country, is here for a few days on a business trip in conference with Manager F. HUDDLESTON IS RELEASED.

Wife Not Able to Bear Expense of His Removal to Charlotte.

R. H. Huddleston, a young white man of this city, formerly of Charlotte, who was arrested last week on a charge of deserting his wife and children at Charlotte, was released yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Cowan, upon receipt of advices from Charlotte to the effect that Huddleston's wife was not able to afford the expense of having him brought there to stand trial.

Huddleston was ill when placed under arrest last week, and has been in the James Walker Memorial Hospital, under guard, until yesterday. Preparations to take him to Charlotte were under way when the message was received which caused the sheriff to liberate him.

FUNERAL OF BISHOP STRANGE

Impressive Services from St. James' This Afternoon—Interment Beneath Church Chancel.

The funeral of Bishop Robert Strange, of the Diocese of East Carolina, will be held at St. James' Church this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. Following the impressive service, which will be conducted by Bishop Cheshire, of Raleigh, assisted by Bishops Guerry, Horner and Tucker, the remains of the beloved churchman will be interred beneath the chancel of the church. The body will be removed from the Episcopal residence to St. James' this morning at 9:30 o'clock and will lie in state until 4 o'clock this afternoon.

It was originally intended to remove the body to St. James' last night, but owing to unforeseen difficulty this plan had to be changed. The many friends of the beloved bishop, who knew him while living, are invited to view the body at the church today while it lies in state.

Many friends of the family called at the Episcopal residence on Orange street yesterday to extend condolence to the bereaved family. The announcement of his death brought sorrow to many devoted admirers throughout North Carolina and other States, where he was known, and many telegrams of sympathy were received by the family yesterday.

The funeral service this afternoon will be in charge of Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, D. D., of Raleigh, Bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, who arrived in the city last night. He will be assisted by Bishop W. A. Guerry, of Charleston, S. C., Bishop of the Diocese of South Carolina; Bishop J. M. Horner, of Asheville, Bishop of the district of Asheville, and Bishop Beverly D. Tucker, of Lynchburg, Va., Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Southern Virginia. They will arrive at noon today on the Seaboard train from Hamlet.

The clergy of the Diocese of East Carolina will attend the service in a body and will be in the funeral procession.

The provisional plans for the funeral procession are to have it form at the Parish House of St. James' in the following order: First will come the choir followed by the clergy in their vestments. Next will come the Bishops and the honorary pall-bearers followed by the active pall-bearers with the body and then the members of the family and intimate friends.

After the impressive funeral service of the Episcopal church, the remains will be interred beneath the chancel, beside the remains of the late Bishop Atkinson.

Rev. G. T. Adams, president of the Wilmington Ministerial Association, has requested all the ministers of the city to meet at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at 5 o'clock to attend the funeral in a body.

RESOLUTIONS OF SORROW

Adopted by Vestry of St. John's Church, Fayetteville.

The following from the Fayetteville Observer of yesterday will be read with special interest in Wilmington and throughout Eastern North Carolina:

"At a meeting of the vestry of St. John's church, held today, the death of Bishop Strange was officially announced. The following minute was adopted by a standing vote:

"'This vestry feels, necessarily, that the duty of giving appropriate expression on this sad occasion to our feelings now that our beloved bishop has been taken from us—is a most difficult one. How can a sorrow like ours be expressed in mere words? To this parish and this city, the death of Bishop Strange comes with special sadness. St. John's church and this entire community (irrespective of creed), loved Bishop Strange. He began his ministry here, assisting our former beloved rector, Dr. Huske. This being the ancestral home of his forbears, every one here in their warm affection for him, felt that he belonged to this place in an exclusive way. It is unnecessary to dwell upon the beauty of his character; it was an open book to every one. He was a Godly and lovable man. In our sorrow we can be comforted by knowing that he served his Maker all the days of his life.

"'Now that he has been gathered unto his fathers with the testimony of a good conscience; in the communion of the Catholic church; in the confidence of a certain Father; in the comfort of a reasonable, religious and holy hope and in favor with his Lord and in perfect charity with the world, we can and do rejoice that he is at rest.

"'Resolved, That this church be appropriately draped in his memory.

"'Resolved, That a committee from the vestry be appointed to attend his funeral.

"'Resolved, That a copy of these minutes be spread on our books, and that one copy be sent to Mrs. Strange, and a copy be given to the Fayetteville Observer.

"'Resolved, That at the hour of the funeral tomorrow afternoon this church bell shall be tolled.'

"The vestry also directed that flowers be sent for the funeral."

FUNERAL OF MR. LANDING.

Services Conducted from Residence Yesterday Afternoon.

The funeral of Mr. William H. Landing, who died at his home Sunday at noon, was conducted from the residence, No. 1214 South Third street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock by Rev. Thos. P. Noe, rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd. The services were attended by a large number of friends. The interment was in Bellevue cemetery.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. J. W. Shepard, W. M. Johnson, E. J. Hart, J. H. Wood, William Sheehan and W. V. Henry.

To Peel Off Freckled, Tanned or Muddy Skin

To remove tan, muddiness, freckles, blotches or any complexion difficulty, the best thing to do is to remove the skin itself. This is easily, painlessly and inexpensively done by the application of ordinary mercolized wax, procurable at any drug store. The wax peels off the defective outer skin, a little each day, gradually bringing the cutis or second layer of skin to the surface. The pores are unclogged and the face breathes in the life-giving oxygen. The new skin is beautifully soft, clear and white, bearing the healthy glow of youth.

Just apply the wax as you would cold cream, only not rubbing it in. In the morning wash it off with warm water. It's the most effective treatment known for a soiled, discolored or aged complexion.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS
By Being Constantly Supplied With Thedford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whittaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble.

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Thedford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Thedford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

NEW YORK COTTON MARKET.

New York, August 24.—There was no material change in the cotton situation today, so far as could be learned in local trade circles. Little further progress is expected to be made in the evening up of old contracts until after the arrival here of the Liverpool delegates toward the end of the month, and the trade meanwhile appears to be awaiting developments. The local spot market was nominal, with no quotations and no transactions.

COTTON SEED OIL MARKET.

New York, August 24.—Cotton seed oil was advanced further again today, on covering of shorts and on improvement in the demand for actual oil. Trading was quiet, however, with offerings scarce. Final prices were 5 to 15 points net higher. Sales, 7,100 barrels.

The market closed firm. Spot 6.80@6.90; September, 6.69@6.80; October, 6.65@6.68; November, 6.53@6.60; December, 6.54@6.57; January, 6.57@6.59; February, 6.59@6.64; March, 6.63@6.68. Total sales, 7,000.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

Denims were in good request. Dress goods were advanced 2½ to 5c. a yard by some mills. Staple worsteds were advanced another 2½c. by the American woolen company.

KINSTON'S MORTALITY RECORD IS REMARKABLE.

Bids Fair to Prove Only About 6 per 1,000 Per Year.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 24.—Unless an epidemic of a fatal malady should break out, if the death rate of the past seven and one-half months is maintained here during the remainder of the year it will be only six per thousand for the year, according to a reasonable estimate. There is not now one single person in the community dependent upon the undertaking business for a livelihood.

Up to now there have been only about 40 deaths in the city, or about four per 1,000, since January 1st. And the elimination of nearly every contagious disease is expected to make the rate even lower in the coming cold months. Sewerage extensions in several sections during the spring and summer assure better health conditions in those sections. Kinston, it is believed, will have a lower death rate in 1914 than any other town in Eastern Carolina.

LENOIR COURT CONVENES.

One of the Largest Dockets in History of County.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., Aug. 24.—Superior court was convened here today with one of the largest dockets in the history of Lenoir county. There are 220 cases. This number has been surpassed at only one previous term of the court, when there were 240 cases docketed. The term being for only one week, it is not expected that the docket will be cleared, especially as there are a number of intricate cases, which include bigamy, abandonment, seduction, etc., that will take considerable time to try. Annie McGee, for murder, and John Perry, for first degree burglary, will be capital defendants. Judge Frank Daniels, brother to the Secretary of the Navy, is presiding.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS IN SPECIAL SESSION TODAY

To Pass on Applications of Member Banks

Machinery of N. C. Currency Association is Moving—Corporation Tax Assessments Sent Out—Raleigh News of a Day.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., August 24.—The board of directors of the North Carolina National Currency Association will meet in special session here tomorrow to pass on numbers of applications that have been filed the past week for permission for the applicant banks to issue additional bank notes under the Federal act allowing member banks to issue up to 125 per cent. of their capital and unimpaired surplus when approved securities are filed. After this special meeting tomorrow, the board is to meet on Friday of each week in the association headquarters here.

The members of the board are Joseph G. Brown, Raleigh, president of the association; Thomas E. Cooper, of Wilmington, president of the State Bankers' Association; E. B. Crow, secretary-treasurer State National Currency Association; all ex-officio; W. C. Wilkerson, Charlotte; Neil Ellington, Greensboro; W. J. Holloway, Durham; J. B. Ramsey, Rocky Mount; A. M. Dumay, Washington.

It is an interesting and reassuring fact that the North Carolina banks can under the Federal reserve additional currency act issue as much as $7,883,380 supplimentary bank note issues, should the financial situation of the State require this much additional money in circulation for moving crops or meeting other financial needs of the State.

Not Hurrying to the South.

Prof. A. Rudy, of the A. & M. College, just back from several weeks' stay in the North looking up desirable foreigners to locate in this part of the State, his efforts being for the Raleigh Chamber of Commerce most especially, says that he found the much higher wages paid in the North and East difficult to overcome in inducing labor, skilled or unskilled to come South. He was instructed to offer $1.25 to $1.75 for unskilled labor and $2.50 to $4.50 for skilled labor. He also tried to find recruits in the way of house servants, but he found that servants of a standard sort North are getting eighteen to twenty dollars per month. He insists that the South will have to meet these prices before this labor of a reliable, satisfactory sort can be secured.

Charters Issued.

A charter was issued today for The Wilkes Commercial Club, Inc., of North Wilkesboro, having for its purpose the promotion of the commercial interest of the town and section and the advancement of social intercourse and fraternal spirit among the business men. There is a clause that specifies that no intoxicating liquors of any sort will be allowed to be brought into the club apartments.

Another charter is to The Herndon Plow Company, of Laurinburg, capital $10,000 authorized, and $3,400 subscribed by W. T. Herndon, A. K. Currie, F. C. McCormick and others for manufacture of a special Herndon plow and other agricultural machinery.

Corporation Tax Assessments.

The Corporation Commission has just sent out to registers of deeds in all the counties of the State the statements of the assessments for taxation that the commission has made against the corporations in their respective counties, there being upwards of six thousand of them in all. The commission has not yet completed the casting up of the total assessments made and the taxes that will result for the year along with comparison with last year. This will be done within the next few days.

Crops Good in the Piedmont.

W. A. Graham, Commissioner of Agriculture, just back from a trip to farmers' institutes in Western Carolina and a visit to his plantation in Lincoln county, says crop conditions are fine everywhere and that even in the stretch of country that was visited by the severe hail storm in July the cotton and corn have come out wonderfully and will yield more than 75 per cent. of an average crop. Late corn all over the sections that he visited is especially promising. The early corn was somewhat injured by the drought conditions early in the season. He says he saw some indications of crop rust in Union, Anson and Lincoln counties, but he does not think this will develop seriously.

Commissioner Graham went to Washington, D. C., while away and appeared before congressional committees and the Commissioner of Agriculture in the interest of legislation for the relief of the farmers. He says he found members of Congress and the administration generally willing and anxious to do what ever can be done under the constitution.

MRS. DORIS KUHL DEAD.

Aged Christian Woman Died at Her Home Here Yesterday Morning.

Many friends will be deeply grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Doris Kuhl, wife of Mr. H. R. Kuhl, which occurred at their home, No. 719 Bladen street, yesterday morning at 10:15 o'clock. She fell six years ago and since that time had been confined to her room. She bore her suffering with rare patience and despite her extreme age was always cheerful and retained her interest in life.

She was born in Siedenberg, Fisulingen, Province of Hanover, Germany, on July 15, 1832, and was, therefore, 82 years old. When she was quite a young woman she came to America and lived first at Charleston, S. C., and later came to Wilmington. She was married to Mr. H. R. Kuhl on August 3, 1863. She was a charter member of St. Paul's Lutheran church, and was connected with that church for more than a half century.

Surviving her besides her husband are two sons, Messrs. J. W. and C. L. Kuhl, of Wilmington, and one daughter, Mrs. G. A. Smith, of Charlotte.

The funeral will be conducted from the residence this afternoon at 4 o'clock and from St. Paul's Lutheran church at 4:30 o'clock. The interment will be in Bellevue cemetery.

COLLEGES FIGHT TYPHOID

College Presidents from All Over the State Agree to Offer Free Anti-Typhoid Treatment.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24.—An open letter has just gone out to all the college presidents in the State calling attention to the increased danger from typhoid at this time of the year and to the value of the anti-typhoid vaccine now furnished free by the State. The college authorities were quick to see the importance of this preventive measure and by return mail over 20 replies were received, while others are arriving in every mail. Without exception every college president thus far has agreed to arrange to offer the treatment free of charge in their respective colleges this fall to all students who can be induced to thus protect themselves.

President E. K. Graham, of the University, writes: "We shall be glad to avail ourselves of this opportunity to secure anti-typhoid vaccine for the University students next year. Last year I think half the students took the treatment and during the past summer several hundred summer school teachers were vaccinated."

President D. H. Hill, of A. & M., writes: "Our institution arranged nearly a month ago to have everything in readiness to offer to all new students the anti-typhoid treatment and to do this free of all charge. The college physician will administer the treatment as part of his official duty. We thank you for your kind interest in the matter."

Rev. George W. Lay, of St. Mary's School, says: "I shall take pleasure in offering this treatment to our students and urging it upon them. I am both grieved and angered when I hear from time to time of the death of some person in the prime of life and vigor with promise for a useful future being taken away so unnecessarily by typhoid when the sure means of prevention without pain or sickness is so easily at hand."

President R. H. Wright, of the East Carolina Training School, writes: "I will not only be glad to have every student take it but I will talk to them about the importance of it and insist upon their taking it. I feel that the students should take this treatment and that they should spread the news throughout our State."

President W. A. Harper, of Elon College, says: "I thank you for the offer to furnish us anti-typhoid vaccine for our student body free of charge. I will appreciate your sending the vaccine to our college physician."

President Julius I. Foust, of the State Normal and Industrial College, writes: "I am sure our college physician will be glad to offer anti-typhoid treatment free of charge to all our students."

"This represents the general tone of all the replies received thus far in regard to the State's offer," says the State Board of Health. "No one appreciates more than these men the responsibility of having under their direction the young people of our State nor do any class of people except physicians and health officers, have a keener sense of the danger and utter needlessness of this preventable filth disease, than these college presidents.

"Parents sending their sons and daughters to college should if possible have them take the anti-typhoid treatment before they go or at least know that they will receive the treatment after reaching college:"

NO TRACE OF BODY.

Brother of C. F. Deal, Who Has Disappeared, Will Come Today.

The police were unable to find any trace of young C. F. Deal, who disappeared mysteriously from the Gilbert Hotel Saturday afternoon and whose hat was found on the Clyde steamship wharf Sunday afternoon. The presumption is that he drowned himself in the Cape Fear river, as it is believed that he would have been located were he alive.

Chief of Police Williams forwarded the letter which was found under the hat to the father of the young man, Mr. C. J. Deal, of Landis, N. C. He talked with Mr. Deal over the long distance 'phone last night and he told Chief Williams that he was sending his son, a brother of C. F. Deal, to Wilmington to aid in the investigation. Mr. Deal was in Salisbury when he called Chief Williams up to learn if anything had been heard from his son.

CONTRACT FOR STEEL PILING.

Lackawanna Steel Corporation Lands Big Government Order.

The Lackawanna Steel Corporation, of Buffalo, N. Y., has been awarded the contract for furnishing the Government approximately 1,576 tons of steel piling for use in the Brown's Landing cofferdam, on the Cape Fear near Elizabethtown. The amount involved is between $56,000 and $65,000.

As soon as the contract is approved and signed by the officials in Washington, the company will begin filling the order. The first shipment of steel will probably arrive in about six weeks.

As mentioned some time ago, two other corporations submitted bids for furnishing the steel. They were the Carnegie Steel Company and the Gelsenkirschener Bergwerks, A. G., the latter of Dusseldorf, Germany. The contract was awarded to the lowest bidder.

Stopped for Conference.

Mr. W. B. Cooper, of this city, who recently landed in Montreal, Canada, after a business trip in Europe, and who is now on his way home, stopped over in Washington, D. C., yesterday, upon invitation of Secretary McAdoo, to attend the conference of cotton growers, manufacturers and bankers. Mr. H. C. McQueen, also of this city, attended the confegence, through invitation of the Secretary of the Treasury.

—Through the office of Maj. H. W. Stickle, U. S. district engineer, the government engineering department will in the near future ask for bids for a contract to furnish the government a launch, 62 feet over all, 59 feet on waterline and with a 15-foot beam, for use in connection with the harbor of refuge project at Cape Lookout.

—License was issued yesterday for the marriage of Mr. Jos. T. Chesnut and Miss Mildred Upchurch, both of Wilmington.

—Messrs. Nathan O'Berry and Geo. C. Royall, of Goldsboro, were registered at The Orton yesterday.

NEGRO HOMICIDE IN PENDER

One Black Kills Another in Bannerman's Bridge Section—Lumber Mills Suspend.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., August 24.—The Bannerman's Bridge section of Pender county is getting to be notorious for homicides, due no doubt, to the number of negro saw mill hands at work there for the Buel-Crocker Lumber Co. Another homicide occurred there Saturday night, when a negro named Haywood Smith shot another negro named Rep Murphy in the neck, the bullet going through the neck and lodging in the spinal cord, from which he died Sunday.

Mr. A. E. Burton, acting coroner, held an inquest Sunday evening, and the jury returned a verdict to the effect that it was murder, and ordering Smith held without bail. From what can be learned, it seems that there was a lot of whiskey drinking and carousing generally, going on over there, and the shooting was a result. Smith is in jail where he will have to remain until the November term of court, as the September term is for the trial of civil cases only.

The Garysburg Lumber Co. closed down their mills here Saturday for an indefinite period, due to the condition of the lumber market. It is reported that the East River Lumber Co., at Smith's Bridge, also will close down pretty soon. It is to be hoped that the conditions in the lumber market will improve so that these mills can start up again soon, as they are quite important factors in the business world around here.

The news of the death of Bishop Strange was received here with much sorrow, as he was well known and loved here by all who knew him, he having held services here several times within the last few years.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Cook and children, of Chattanooga, Tenn., arrived here Saturday evening for a visit to Mrs. Cook's father and family, Mr. A. H. Paddison.

—Mr. A. J. Parker, while riding a motorcycle between Delgado and Winter Park, because of a poor light on his machine, failed to see a wagon in front of him and hit the hub of a rear wheel smashing up the front part of his machine. He jumped off in time to save himself from much injury. The damage to the machine is about $15.

—Mr. E. T. Pullen and Miss Vera Pullen, of Burgaw, were guests at The Orton yesterday.

—Dr. L. B. Evans and Mr. N. A. Currie, of Clarkton, were business visitors in the city yesterday.

RESINOL HEALS ITCHING ECZEMA

The Easy Way to Get Rid of Tormenting, Unsightly Skin Eruptions.

If your skin itches and burns with eczema or other tormenting, unsightly skin trouble, simply wash the sore places with Resinol Soap and hot water, dry, and apply a little Resinol Ointment.

The itching stops instantly, you no longer have to dig and scratch, sleep becomes possible, and healing begins at once. That is because the soothing, antiseptic Resinol medication strikes right into the surface, arrests the action of the disease and lets the tortured, inflamed skin rest, almost always restoring it to perfect health—quickly, easily and at little cost.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are also speedily effective in even severe and stubborn cases of pimples, blackheads, dandruff, sores and piles. Prescribed by doctors for over nineteen years, and sold by practically every druggist. For free trial, write to Dept. KK, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Don't be deceived by inferior "substitutes."
